"Michael's" Door

Go thru this door if you want the best styles obtainable—low prices too.

Fruit of the Loom Muslin 8c the yd.—"Michael's"

During the last year this muslin has sold for 15c—when cotton is cheapest it sells for 10c

This is the full yard wide fine bleached muslin that your mother used to use. Five years ago, just before cotton began advancing, this muslin sold at 10c—in fact this was the regular price everywhere. It steadily advanced since that period until it finally reached the retail price of 15c the yard. It is one of the nicest bleached muslins on the market. The other day a Chicago wholesale house tried to stimulate business by selling some of this muslin for less than the price at the mill and we immediately telegraphed for some of it. We are now going to do precisely what the wholesaler did—sell you this muslin, while it lasts, for less than the mills will sell it for today. It will go on sale Friday Morning and to protect ourselves must refuse to sell to other dealers nor more than 15 yards to one customer. Remember the qualities you have paid and are paying 8c and 10c the yard for and come after some of this fine muslin for 8c the yard.

15c India Linons at 11½c—main floor

Now you'll come—just what you want, isn't it—a fine quality of India Linon—the kind for a white waist or a child's white dress. BRYAN'S TOUR ENDED.

Trip Over His Own State Finally Concluded.

Omaha, June 4.—The week's speechmaking tour of William Jennings Bryan through the northern and western portions of Nebraska ended with a rear platform speech at Columbus and he came on to Omaha. He has made forty-two set speeches and nearly that many informal responses since he left home last Thursday. In most instances these addresses have had a home color to them, but in no instance has he failed to touch on national politics, and he has directed his principal effort to opposing the present financial system, and in nearly every speech made he has pointed out what he considered the weakness of the currency measure passed by congress during its closing sessions.

He started from Kimball, Neb., at 1 o'clock the morning of his last day's tour, making his first stop at North Platte, where he spoke to a gathering at the opera house composed chiefly of railroad men. He assailed the railroads for coercing employees into making petitions to executive boards opposing proposed anti-railroad legislation.

The largest meeting of the day, and the one which really wound up his trip, was at Lexington, where business was practically suspended during his stay in the town. All the principal buildings were decorated in honor of his visit and the schools were dismissed at noon. He addressed an open-air meeting at the high school grounds, where a large crowd attended.

Mr. Bryan's reception at Lexington was a fitting climax to a trip which he considered the most important, and still the most pleasant, he has ever made over his home state.

UNION IS ABANDONED.

Presbyterian and United Presbyterian Churches Will Not Merge.

Pittsburg, June 4.—The proposed union of the Presbyterian and the United Presbyterian churches, or at least to bring the two denominations into closer relations, which has been before the general assemblies of both organizations for some time, has been abandoned for the present.

At the closing session of the general assembly of the United Presbyterians here a report recommending such action was adopted.

The report was submitted by the committee to which the subject had been referred by the last general assembly. It stated that this committee had held no formal meeting because of the great distance between the homes of the members and the failure of the assembly to provide for traveling expenses. However, the committee was ready to report recommending that a new committee be named to consider the subject, the members to be centrally located and provisions made to pay their expenses, but since informally agreeing upon such action the committee had been semi-officially informed that the Presbyterian church would take no further steps in the matter, either for union or closer relations, and therefore the committee decided to leave the whole question to future assemblies.

The report of the committee against consolidating the Freedmen's Mission, Church Extension and Home Mission boards was adopted.

Rev. Dr. J. Allison Reed was elected treasurer of the Home Mission board to succeed his father, Rev. Dr. George M. Reed, who has held the office for many years, but who has become too old and feeble for the duties.

RETAINED AT CLEVELAND.

General Headquarters of Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

Columbus, O., June 4.—By a vote of 2 to 1 the international convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers voted to retain the general headquarters at Cleveland for the next decennial period beginning 1910. The contest narrowed down at the close to Cleveland and Chicago. Twelve members of the committee of twenty to whom the propositions of the various cities seeking the headquarters had been referred voted for Cleveland and seven for Chicago, while one did not vote. Majority and minority reports were submitted and it was finally decided to submit the question of location to convention, with the result that Cleveland was chosen.

Detroit was selected as the place for the next biennial convention. Two important committee reports remain to be received. One is on the question of increasing the pay of the grand officers and the other on the pay of delegates. Delegates from the weaker sub-divisions are still contending for uniform pay of $7 a day, which plan was once adopted and then rescinded.

Vessel and Crew Missing.

Norfolk, Va., June 4.—All hope has been abandoned for the German steamer Europe, which sailed from Hamburg, Germany, forty-five days ago bound for Norfolk, loaded with fertilizer. The trip should have been made in twenty-one days. Nothing has been heard of the ship in forty days. She carried a crew of twenty-seven men.

Woman Terrorist Hanged.

Voronzh, June 4.—Madame Feo-doravna, the woman who made an unsuccessful attempt to assassinate General Eibrikoff, governor of this province, on May 6, was hanged here. She was twenty-five years old and was formerly a school teacher.

2 to 1 the international convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers voted to retain the general head-
decennial period beginning 1910. The
contest narrowed down at the close to Cleveland and Chicago. Twelve mem-
were submitted and it was finally decided to submit the question of location to convention, with the result that Cleveland was chosen.

officers and the other on the pay of
was once adopted and then rescinded.

STOLEN NOTES
ARE RECOVERED

Valuable Papers Stolen From Safe of J. W. Koop May 1, 1904, Just Found

HIDDEN UNDER WAREHOUSE

L. S. Budd Discovered Them Under Warehouse Belonging to Fisher-Budd Fuel Co.

On the night of May 1st, 1904, the store of J. W. Koop was entered and the safe robbed of about $50 in money and notes to the value of about $1,000. There were also razors and knives to the value of $50 taken. From that day until Tuesday there has been no clue to the stolen property. The safe was opened by working the combination and it is thought that the robbers expected to get about $300 in money which Mr. Koop had placed in the safe Saturday afternoon, but had taken out again Sunday afternoon.

On Tuesday forenoon L. S. Budd, seeing some loose boards which bothered about permitting a team to drive between the building and cars, pulled them off and noticed the canvas case containing the notes sticking out of the iron box belonging to the safe. Supposing that it was something which Mr. Fisher had thrown under there when they moved their business across the track several years ago he pulled it out intending to use it for filing receipts. He threw the case on a box beside the coal shed and lay there all day, and when he got ready to go home at night he took it in the office and began to carefully look over the papers. He soon saw that they were all notes and all drawn in favor of Mr. Koop. He then tore off the boards again and took out the treasury box, and notified Mr. Koop's sons of the find. Mr. Koop being out of the city, Mr. Budd retained the property until Wednesday afternoon when he returned it to Mr. Koop.

When seen yesterday evening by a DISPATCH representative concerning the matter Mr. Koop stated that the larger part of the indebtedness represented by the notes had been paid, but that there were quite a number of people who absolutely refused to admit the indebtedness or do anything about it after the notes were stolen. Those parties, Mr. Koop states will be sued at once and he will collect the notes if within the range of possibility he will have no leniency with a man mean enough to take advantage of the loss as some did.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Mackerman at Cedar Lake was the scene of a happy wedding Wednesday evening, June 3. Two of their daughters, Bessie Lorena and Lela Ethel, were respectively united in wedlock to Byron Hale Graham and Peter J. Rock. The ceremony, comprising a simple ring service, was performed by Rev. J. E. Abramson in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. The young people are favorably known. Peterson-Everest

A very largely attended wedding took place last evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. In the party witnessing the ceremony were several guests from out of town, among whom were Mrs. W. A. Fletcher and Ralph M. Everest from Sauk Rapids. The bridesmaid of the occasion was Miss Nellie Everest, a sister of the bride, and Joseph Peterson, the groom's brother was the bridegroom.

The wedding took place at 8:15, the marriage ceremony being read by the Rev. Charles Fox Davis of the Methodist Episcopal church. The bride was handsomely gowned in French Persian lawn and carried white roses at the altar. After the marriage a wedding supper was served to which a large company sat down. The contracting parties were the recipients of many handsome and useful presents, and they will make their future home at Long Lake, being at home to their friends next week. A large circle of friends wish for them a pleasant future.

REPLIES TO LILLEY.

Congressman Boutell Answers Charges
of Connecticut Man.

Chicago, June 4.—Congressman H. S. Boutell, who was chairman of the house committee which conducted the submarine boat investigation, in replying to charges made against him by Representative George E. Lilley of Connecticut, said that there was only one feature of Mr. Lilley's statement that called for a reply from him or from any other member of the committee.

"I should prefer to say nothing," said Mr. Boutell, "but others than myself are involved and Mr. Lilley has called down his punishment upon his own head. Nothing would now be so becoming in him as silence, and nothing would be so much appreciated by his friends and relatives. There is nothing that he can say under the present conditions but what he and all who are interested in him will regret."

"Before adjournment of congress Mr. Lilley had three months after the introduction of the resolutions in which to express his views and suspicions, either on the floor of the house or under oath before the investigating committee. The present continuation of his attacks upon his colleagues cannot, therefore, meet with the approval of honorable men."

SOUTH LONG LAKE

The many friends of Mrs. Louisa Wood, a former resident, were grieved to hear of her death at Mountain Home, Idaho, recently.

Geo. Morcomb, of Ridgeway, Minn., was looking the country over last week and incidentally visiting old friends. Mr. Morcomb was well pleased with Crow Wing Co. and Long lake in particular.

Several of the boys met at the lake last Sunday to organize a baseball club. They will meet again next Sunday.

The young son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stedfeld had the misfortune to fall from the hay loft and break his arm last Sunday.

Mrs. Amanda Hill is here on business. She is residing in Minneapolis.

Owing to the bad roads and threatening rain, a small crowd enjoyed the dance at the lake Saturday evening, May 30th.

South Long lake was well represented at the circus last Wednesday.

The Long Lake Cemetery association held their annual meeting at W. O. Bennington's at 10 o'clock a. m., May 30. E. O. Busbey was re-elected president and W. E. Smart was re-elected treasurer. The association is now fairly started with all bills paid and a small balance in the treasury. County Auditor Smart, who is secretary of the association was present at the meeting.

Mrs. C. F. Maust is in Brainerd for medical attention and Mr. Maust states that she has so far recovered that she will be able to return home this week.

Mrs. Inez Drake closed a very successful term of school in Dist. No. 68, last Friday.

The patriotic people here are preparing to make the eagle scream at the Yeoman hall in Daggett July 4th. "For particulars see small bills," etc.

A. Gage received a letter from Chas. Cordes last week. He is in or near Bridger, Mont. Charlie says he is not particularly stuck on the country but said he would try and stay awhile as he was getting $3.25 per day and board, being engaged in running an engine in a saw mill.

BATTLES WITH

Physician Has Thrilling Experience on an Ice Flak.

St. Johns, N. F., June 4.—A doctor for forty hours against a pack of tiger-maddened dogs on an ice pack of the coast of Labrador, with the temperature 10 below zero and with only a knife to defend himself from being torn to pieces by the savage brutes, is the thrilling experience that Dr. Wilfred Grenfell, the celebrated missionary physician, has recently passed through. The story of Dr. Grenfell's escape from death is told by Captain W. Bartlett of the steamer Strathcona, which has just arrived here from the North. Captain Bartlett was with Commander Peary on several of his expeditions to the Arctic.

Dr. Grenfell, while on a trip to attend some patients at a distant settlement, went adrift on an ice pack and his dog team, becoming cold and hungry, attacked him. He fought them off after being severely bitten, and was rescued from his perilous position in Mare bay.

FLOODS IN MONTANA.

The Worst in the History of the Northwest.

Butte, Mont., June 4.—Train service in Montana is in a state of demoralization unequalled in the history of railroading in the Northwest. The Northern Pacific and St. Paul right of way west from Deer Lodge is hidden under water or washed out, affording little chance of any trains being gotten across the break before Friday and possibly not before next week. The Missouri river is steadily rising as the result of heavy rains, the river being nine feet above the normal stage. Butte is in darkness as the result of the bursting of White's dam below the city flooding the power plant.

Two lives were lost in Northern Montana, a rancher and his wife drowning in the high water in a coulee.

Stranded at Livingston as the result of numerous washouts, Governor Norris and twenty other belated Northern Pacific passengers walked fifteen miles to Bozeman. The governor had a number of important engagements and decided to walk over Bozeman mountain. The score of pedestrians presented a picturesque but unhappy spectacle when they reached Bozeman. A special train carried them from that city to Helena.

Among the notables stranded at Helena by the interruption of traffic is Emma Goldman, the high priestess of anarchy.

REPLIES TO LILLEY.

of Connecticut Man.

Chicago, June 4.—Congressman H. S. Boutell, who was chairman of the house committee which conducted the submarine boat investigation, in replying to charges made against him by Representative George E. Lilley of Connecticut, said that there was only one feature of Mr. Lilley's statement that called for a reply from him or from any other member of the committee.

"I should prefer to say nothing," said Mr. Boutell, "but others than myself are involved and Mr. Lilley has called down his punishment upon his own head. Nothing would now be so becoming in him as silence, and nothing would be so much appreciated by his friends and relatives. There is nothing that he can say under the present conditions but what he and all who are interested in him will regret."

"Before adjournment of congress Mr. Lilley had three months after the introduction of the resolutions in which to express his views and suspicions, either on the floor of the house or under oath before the investigating committee. The present continuation of his attacks upon his colleagues cannot, therefore, meet with the approval of honorable men."

Geo. Morecomb, of Ridgeway, Minn., was looking the country over last week and incidentally visiting old friends. Mr. Morecomb was well pleased with Crow Wing Co. and Long lake in particular.

Several of the boys met at the lake last Sunday to organize a baseball club. They will meet again next Sunday.

The young son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stedfeld had the misfortune to fall from the hay loft and break his arm last Sunday.

Mrs. Amanda Hill is here on business. She is residing in Minneapolis.

South Long lake was well represented at the circus last Wednesday.

The Long Lake Cemetery association held their annual meeting at W. O. Bennington's at 10 o'clock a. m., May 30. E. O. Busbey was re-elected president and W. E. Smart was re-elected treasurer. The association is now fairly started with all bills paid and a small balance in the treasury. County Auditor Smart, who is secretary of the association was present at the meeting.

Mrs. C. F. Maust is in Brainerd for medical attention and Mr. Maust states that she has so far recovered that she will be able to return home this week.

Mrs. Inez Drake closed a very successful term of school in Dist. No. 68, last Friday.

The patriotic people here are preparing to make the eagle scream at the Yeoman hall in Daggett July 4th. "For particulars see small bills," etc.

A. Gage received a letter from Chas. Cordes last week. He is in or near Bridger, Mont. Charlie says he is not particularly stuck on the country but said he would try and stay awhile as he was getting $3.25 per day and board, being engaged in running an engine in a saw mill.

Physician Has The "Big Experience" on an Ice Floe.

St. Johns, N. F., June 4.—Dr. Grenfell, for forty hours against a pack of madder dogs against a pack of madder dogs on the coast of Labrador, with the temperature 10 below zero and with only a knife to defend himself from being torn to pieces by the savage brutes, is the thrilling experience that Dr. Wilfred Grenfell, the celebrated missionary physician, has recently passed through. The story of Dr. Grenfell's escape from death is told by Captain W. Bartlett of the steamer Strathcona, which has just arrived here from the North. Captain Bartlett was with Commander Peary on several of his expeditions to the Arctic.

Dr. Grenfell, while on a trip to attend some patients at a distant settlement, went adrift on an ice pack and his dog team, becoming cold and hungry, attacked him. He fought them off after being severely bitten, and was rescued from his perilous position in Mare bay.

Remember that next Saturday night there is another dance at Crow Wing. Everybody is invited.

FLOODS IN MONTANA.

Butte, Mont., June 4.—Train service in Montana is in a state of demoralization unequalled in the history of railroading in the Northwest. The Northern Pacific and St. Paul right of way west from Deer Lodge is hidden under water or washed out, affording little chance of any trains being gotten across the break before Friday and possibly not before next week. The Missouri river is steadily rising as the result of heavy rains, the river being nine feet above the normal stage. Butte is in darkness as the result of the bursting of White's dam below the city flooding the power plant.

Stranded at Livingston as the result of numerous washouts, Governor Norris and twenty other belated Northern Pacific passengers walked fifteen miles to Bozeman. The governor had a number of important engagements and decided to walk over Bozeman mountain. The score of pedestrians presented a picturesque but unhappy spectacle when they reached Bozeman. A special train carried them from that city to Helena.

Among the notables stranded at Helena by the interruption of traffic is Emma Goldman, the high priestess of anarchy.

Rights of Man Who W...

Only in Great Britain, so far as I know, does the law hold that a foot passenger has an equal right to the highway with the wheeled traffic, and that it is the duty of the driver of the latter to avoid at all costs the former even if he has to do so at considerable inconvenience and often danger.

In other countries on the contrary, it is the duty of the pedestrian to give way to the wheeled traffic.

Right of Selection.

The strongminded lady glared at the little man.

"Women will soon claim the right of matrimonial selection," she said.

"With the consent of the selected,
of course?" quoth the little man.

"That will be determined later," said the strongminded lady. "But you may rest assured of one thing. There will be no shilly-shallying."

With this mysterious warning, the strongminded lady turned and went her way, leaving the little man in a cold perspiration.—Cleveland Plain

Chicago Man Shot and Killed in Minneapolis.

DEED OF AN INSANE MAN

Slayer Had Never Before Met His Victim—Tragedy Occurred on the Street—Murderer Is Placed Under Arrest.

Minneapolis, June 4.—Walking calmly and deliberately up to his victim and placing the point of a 38-caliber revolver two inches from his forehead, James Montague, an apparent lunatic, blew out the brains of A. P. Camden in front of the Palace clothing store, Nicollet avenue, between Third and Fourth streets, at midnight.

The men were strangers and neither of them lived in Minneapolis. Camden was an agent for the Automatic Auger company of Chicago, and when questioned as to his home Montague replied, "I came from nowhere and am going to the same place."

Montague was followed down the street and into an alley by two messenger boys, Hough Young and Milton Harlow. The boys saw the shooting and when Montague coolly walked into the alley they followed him and talked with him.

One of them notified Patrolman R.
E. Champlain, and when Montague saw the officer approaching he left the alley and started down Washington avenue on a dog trot. Not wishing to get too close to the man, Officer Champlain followed at a respectful distance.
A block away he saw Detectives Hayes and Lyon approaching. He signalled to them and the detectives closed in on Montague, disarmed him and took him to the central station.

Montague was apparently in a happy frame of mind. He gave his age as twenty-one years. He said he never had seen Camden before, and when asked why he killed him simply said:

"Why, get wise to the joke. It's great sport. I get $150 for every one I kill. Sometimes I plug 'em with a bullet and sometimes I cut their throats."

Montague had on woman's slippers and woman's hose. Otherwise he was rationally and well dressed.

SHORT IN HIS ACCOUNTS.

Paying Teller of a New York Bank
Ends His Life.

New York, June 4.—On being questioned by the bank's officers about an apparent discrepancy in his accounts, Charles T. Muir, paying teller of the Forty-second street branch of the Corn Exchange bank, asked to be excused until he could obtain a deposit ticket to explain the matter, went to the basement and after writing a brief confession that his accounts were short, shot himself in the head. He died within an hour at the hospital.
Vice President Frew of the Corn Exchange bank said that Muir's shortage was $9,608. Muir was one of the bank's most trusted employees and it was while he was receiving teller that he conducted his speculations. In his confession he said that the embezzle-ments had been going on for five years, and that he succeeded in covering his shortage by substituting new deposits for old. Three days ago he was made paying teller of the bank and an examination of his accounts was begun, a suspicion having been aroused that all was not right. In the capacity of paying teller he was no longer in a position to conceal his shortage and he momentarily faced discovery of it.
Vice President Frew said that the shortage was fully covered by a surety bond.

ST. PAUL MAN A SUICIDE

George Henry Ranney Ends His Life
by Hanging.

St. Paul, June 4.—George Henry Ranney, prominent in business and social circles in St. Paul, was found dead by members of his family, hanged to a door with a rope, in their apartment at the Angus, the fashionable apartment house at Selby and Western avenues. Mr. Ranney had been suffering from melancholia, caused by ill health.

He was fifty-seven years old, and he had been a resident of St. Paul for twenty-nine years. He had large business interests, and was the secretary and treasurer of the Scribner-Libbey company, iron and metal workers.

Melancholia is the only cause assigned for the act by members of the family. Mr. Ranney's family relations were the most pleasant and financial troubles are not hinted at, as he was considered wealthy and prosperous.
But he had been in poor health for some time and it had depressed him.
He had taken treatment at a sanitarium, and it was thought that he had secured some relief.

St. Paul Men Indicted.

St. Paul, June 4.—James L. Loving, publisher of the Mail Order Monthly and of Successful Agriculture, and S. A. Phillips, promoter of the St. Paul and Seattle Electric Railway company, were indicted by the federal grand jury on charges of illegal use of the mails. Martin P. Quigley, cashier of the Wisconsin Grain and Stock company, was indicted on a charge of perjury.

Honor Paid to the Memory of Jefferson Davis.

New Orleans, June 4.—Honor was paid to the memory of Jefferson Davis all over the Southland on the one hundredth anniversary of his birth.

At Montgomery, Ala., "the cradle of the Confederacy," and where the Confederate government was first organized with Jefferson Davis as president, ceremonies were held which will help to perpetuate the memory of the cause of which Davis was the head.
These ceremonies consisted of marking the spots where Davis was elected, where he was inaugurated, where his office as president was situated, and the sight of the first headquarters of the new government. Later permanent markings will be placed on these historic spots. Simultaneously with the Montgomery exercises, memorial meetings were in progress from Virginia to Texas, while business was stopped by holidays in some states, and slowed down in others as a tribute to the life and deeds of Jefferson Davis. Among the celebrations were those at Fairview, in Todd county, Ky., Davis' birthplace, and at Beauvoir, Miss., for years his home and now a Confederate veterans' home.

Significant among the memorials were many speeches in praise of Jefferson Davis' lofty character and analysis of controlling principles of his life. In general, the tenor of these speeches was that of remarks by Bishop Charles B. Galloway at Oxford, Miss., when he said that Davis made every effort to avert the clash between the states and that he was one of the conservative men of the Civil war period.

WILL GO UNINSTRUCTED.

Maryland Delegation to Convention
in Denver.

Baltimore, June 4.—The Democratic state convention was held here and delegates to the national convention at Denver were elected and a platform adopted. The latter makes no mention of the candidacy for the presidential nomination of William J.
Bryan, and his followers, who had been demanding half the delegation sent to Denver, count but four sure Bryan men among the sixteen delegates chosen.

The platform promises the candidates named at Denver the "generous and loyal support of the thoroughly united Democracy of Maryland," but makes no suggestion as to who the candidates should be. It demands a revision of the tariff by the next congress, affirms adherence to the doctrine of states' rights and condemns the president for "his persistent attempts to dictate and coerce legislation," demands the regulation of interstate commerce under the "commerce clause" of the Constitution, with a view to "relieve the people to the utmost limit practicable from the grasp of illegal trusts."

The platform was adopted without opposition.

AMERICAN BEEF TRUST.

Its Operations in England May Be Investigated.

London, June 4.—The American
"beef trust" and its alleged control of the British meat market came up again in the house of commons for a brief discussion. Charles W. Bowerman drew attention to the recent increases in the price of meat, declaring they had been engineered by the trust. He asked Winston Churchill, president of the board of trade, to follow the example of the American congress and appoint a commission to inquire into the operations of the trust in this country and devise relief for the British consumer from its increasing exactions. Mr. Churchill promised that he would consider the appointment of a commission to see what could be done regarding "the operations of one of these great trusts, which grew up behind a protectionist tariff."

SPECTACULAR RAID.

Made on Alleged Gambling Houses in
New York.

New York, June 4.—A spectacular raid was made on two houses on West Forty-seventh street, where it was suspected gambling operations were going on, by a large force of police who dashed up in an automobile and took fifty-eight prisoners. The raids were made while the streets in this section, the heart of the theater district, were crowded, and the action of the 200 or more officers soon attracted a great throng.

Police lines were formed around the entire block, revolvers were flashed everywhere by police and plain clothes men, and all attempts to escape were frustrated.

The police reported the capture of a large quantity of gambling paraphernalia from the raided houses, one of which was formerly owned by "Honest John" Kelly.

Floods in Texas.

Wichita Falls, Tex., June 4.—Seven thousand feet of track of the Denver road between here and Vernon was washed out by a severe rain storm.
Five thousand feet of Wichita and Northwestern track between here and Pied river was also washed out. A. E.
Patton lost his life in the flood.

Two Brothers Drowned.

Adams, Neb., June 4.—George and Scott Burke, young sons of a farmer near here, were drowned in Hooper creek, which had become greatly swollen from recent rains.

CUMMINS DECLINES TO TALK

But Defeated Candidate Takes the Result Gracefully—Contest Between Congressman Hull and Judge Prouty
Very Close.

Des Moines, Ia., June 4.—Returns that are complete in nearly all the counties of the state indicate that Iowa Republicans nominated William B. Allison as their candidate to succeed himself in the United States senate. His majority is now generally conceded to be at least 10,000. B. F.
Carroll was nominated for governor over Warren Garst by a majority of about 20,000. George W. Clarke was nominated for lieutenant governor over E. Murphy by 20,000 or more.

J. F. Riggs was nominated superintendent of public schools by an overwhelming majority. The result on railroad commissioner is uncertain and further returns will be necessary to determine the result.

Governor Cummins took the result of the primaries very gracefully and spent the afternoon with friends playing golf. Senator Allison at Dubuque expressed great gratification on the results. Governor Cummins would make no statement as to his further political plans.

The Republican congressional nomination in Congressman Hull's district is in doubt only as a matter of a few votes being between Hull and renomination. Frank P. Woods, Republican state chairman, defeated Congressman Conner in the Tenth district. Congressman E. Hubbard was renominated in the Eleventh.

It will take an official count to determine whether or not Congressman Hull has been renominated by the Republicans of his district, the Seventh.
Both he and Judge S. M. Prouty claim the nomination by about 150 majority.
The fight between them was very bitter and it may lead to a protracted legal battle and a contest before the matter is settled.

ON THE MORMON QUESTION

Democratic Party of Idaho Is Hopelessly Split.

Twin Falls, Ida., June 4.—The Democratic party of Idaho is hopelessly split on the Mormon question. Amid the wildest scenes ever witnessed at a convention in this state, two conventions were held in the same hall.
Both claimed to be regular and a bitter contest before the national committee at Denver is certain.

At one time during the proceedings physical encounters seemed imminent and once it looked as if there might be bloodshed.

The anti-Mormon faction, led by former Senator Dubois, seemed to have a majority of the delegates. The other faction elected twelve delegates, one from each of the seven judicial districts, and five from the state at large, each entitled to half a vote at the national convention, provided the delegation is seated.

The fight arose over the election of a temporary chairman. The Dubois-ites nominated Glen McKinley and the opposition put up K. I. Perky. The vote gave McKinley 148 and Perky 122. It was claimed that the state committee had allowed contested delegations favorable to Dubois to vote and barred contestees that leaned toward the opposition. When the riotous demonstrations subsided Perky called upon the opponents of Dubois to gather around him. He then led them to another part of the hall and organized his convention.

The Perky delegates were instructed to vote for the nomination of Bryan as long as his name is before the convention. A resolution deploring the injection of the Mormon question in state politics was adopted.

wrinkles.

Beauty is in the animation of the features; the bright expression of penetration in the eyes; the clear-cut lines of the "inviting" mouth—
and in that indefinable "something" that bids for the envy of women and the admiration of men.

Wouldn't She Be Beautiful if It Wasn't for the Wrinkles?

known Chicago lady, who resides at Hotel Wychmere, Eighteenth and Indiana Av., that city. Since then she has taken a course treatment

Wrinkles Can Be Entirely Eradicated

But not as easily as some people would have you believe. Wrinkles are stubbornly persistent and yield only to the most skillful treatment. The scientific preparations for this purpose are

E. Burnham's Skin Tightener

Begins the removal of wrinkles by giving the skin new tone and vigor, causing it to contract—the sagging eyelids gradually resume their youthful condition—the furrows on the brow disappear and the hard lines around the mouth grow dim and vanish.

E. Burnham's Skin Food

Completes the removal of wrinkles by strengthening and building up the wasted tissues—stimulates the circulation of red blood through every capillary—rounds out the sunken temples and hollow cheeks —makes permanent the good effects of massage.

E. Burnham's Cucumber Cream

Should be used with this treatment to make the skin clean and elastic, so that the other two preparations can more effectively do their work. The Cream penetrates and dissolves the greasy impurities that have clogged the pores. This allows the Skin Food to pass through them and ACT ON THE TISSUES BENEATH.

Only in Great Britain, so far as I
inconvenience and often danger.

way to the wheeled traffic.

Right of Selection.

the little man.

matrimonial selection," she said.

"With the consent of the selected,
of course?" quoth the little man.

her way, leaving the little man in a cold perspiration.—Cleveland Plain

in Minneapolis.

tim—Tragedy Occurred on the Street—Murderer Is Placed Under Arrest.

Minneapolis, June 4.—Walking calm-
and placing the point of a 38-caliber
revolver two inches from his forehead, James Montague, an apparent lunatic,
blew out the brains of A. P. Camden in
front of the Palace clothing store, Nicollet avenue, between Third and Fourth streets, at midnight.

The men were strangers and neither
of them lived in Minneapolis. Camden
company of Chicago, and when questioned as to his home Montague replied, "I came from nowhere and am

Montague was followed down the street and into an alley by two messenger boys, Hough Young and Milton
talked with him.

One of them notified Patrolman R.
E. Champlain, and when Montague
alley and started down Washington avenue on a dog trot. Not wishing to
get too close to the man, Officer Champlain followed at a respectful distance.
A block away he saw Detectives Hayes
to them and the detectives closed in
him to the central station.

Montague was apparently in a happy frame of mind. He gave his age
said:

"Why, get wise to the joke. It's great sport. I get $150 for every one
I kill. Sometimes I plug 'em with a bullet and sometimes I cut their
throats."

rationally and well dressed.

Ends His Life.

New York, June 4.—On being ques-
apparent discrepancy in his accounts, Charles T. Muir, paying teller of the
Exchange bank, asked to be excused
to explain the matter, went to the
confession that his accounts were
died within an hour at the hospital.
Vice President Frew of the Corn Exchange bank said that Muir's short-
ments had been going on for five years,
amination of his accounts was begun,
paying teller he was no longer in a position to conceal his shortage and he momentarily faced discovery of it.
shortage was fully covered by a surety bond.

by Hanging.

Ranney, prominent in business and
dead by members of his family,
apartments at the Angus, the fashionable apartment house at Selby and Western avenues. Mr. Ranney had
been suffering from melancholia,
caused by ill health.

He was fifty-seven years old, and
twenty-nine years. He had large
business interests, and was the secretary and treasurer of the Scribner-Libbey company, iron and metal workers.

signed for the act by members of the
considered wealthy and prosperous.
But he had been in poor health for
some time and it had depressed him.
He had taken treatment at a sanita-
secured some relief.

St. Paul Men Indicted.

St. Paul, June 4.—James L. Loving, publisher of the Mail Order Monthly and of Successful Agriculture, and S. A. Phillips, promoter of
federal grand jury on charges of illegal use of the mails. Martin P. Quigley, cashier of the Wisconsin Grain
and Stock company, was indicted on
a charge of perjury.

Honor Paid to the Memory of Jefferson Davis.

New Orleans, June 4.—Honor was
paid to the memory of Jefferson Davis
dredth anniversary of his birth.

the Confederacy," and where the Confederate government was first organized with Jefferson Davis as president, ceremonies were held which will
cause of which Davis was the head.
These ceremonies consisted of marking the spots where Davis was elected, where he was inaugurated, where his office as president was situated,
and the sight of the first headquarters
of the new government. Later perma-
the Montgomery exercises, memorial meetings were in progress from Vir-
stopped by holidays in some states,
to the life and deeds of Jefferson Davis. Among the celebrations were those at Fairview, in Todd county, Ky., Davis' birthplace, and at Beauvoir,
Miss., for years his home and now a Confederate veterans' home.

Significant among the memorials
were many speeches in praise of Jefferson Davis' lofty character and analysis of controlling principles of his life. In general, the tenor of these
speeches was that of remarks by Bishop Charles B. Galloway at Oxford, Miss., when he said that Davis made
conservative men of the Civil war period.

in Denver.

adopted. The latter makes no mention of the candidacy for the presidential nomination of William J.
Bryan, and his followers, who had
sent to Denver, count but four sure Bryan men among the sixteen delegates chosen.

dates named at Denver the "generous
and loyal support of the thoroughly
revision of the tariff by the next congress, affirms adherence to the doc-
that of centralization, condemns the president for "his persistent attempts to dictate and coerce legislation," demands the regulation of interstate commerce under the "commerce
clause" of the Constitution, with a
most limit practicable from the grasp
of illegal trusts."

opposition.

vestigated.

"beef trust" and its alleged control of
the British meat market came up again in the house of commons for a
man drew attention to the recent increases in the price of meat, declar-
trust. He asked Winston Churchill,
president of the board of trade, to follow the example of the American congress and appoint a commission to in-
the British consumer from its increasing exactions. Mr. Churchill prom-
operations of one of these great trusts,
tariff."

New York.

raid was made on two houses on West Forty-seventh street, where it was suspected gambling operations were go-
made while the streets in this section, the heart of the theater district,
great throng.

frustrated.

The police reported the capture of a large quantity of gambling paraphernalia from the raided houses, one of which was formerly owned by
"Honest John" Kelly.

Floods in Texas.

road between here and Vernon was
washed out by a severe rain storm.
Northwestern track between here and Pied river was also washed out. A. E.
Patton lost his life in the flood.

Two Brothers Drowned.

Adams, Neb., June 4.—George and Scott Burke, young sons of a farmer
near here, were drowned in Hooper
creek, which had become greatly swollen from recent rains.

Very Close.

Iowa Republicans nominated William
B. Allison as their candidate to succeed himself in the United States senate. His majority is now generally conceded to be at least 10,000. B. F.
Carroll was nominated for governor
over Warren Garst by a majority of
nominated for lieutenant governor
over E. Murphy by 20,000 or more.

J. F. Riggs was nominated superintendent of public schools by an over-
determine the result.

of the primaries very gracefully and
spent the afternoon with friends playing golf. Senator Allison at Dubuque
expressed great gratification on the results. Governor Cummins would
political plans.

The Republican congressional nomination in Congressman Hull's district
votes being between Hull and renomi-nation. Frank P. Woods, Republican state chairman, defeated Congressman Conner in the Tenth district. Con-
in the Eleventh.

It will take an official count to determine whether or not Congressman Hull has been renominated by the Republicans of his district, the Seventh.
the nomination by about 150 majority.
The fight between them was very bitter and it may lead to a protracted
legal battle and a contest before the matter is settled.

lessly Split.

Twin Falls, Ida., June 4.—The Democratic party of Idaho is hopelessly split on the Mormon question. Amid
ventions were held in the same hall.
Both claimed to be regular and a bitter contest before the national committee at Denver is certain.

and once it looked as if there might
be bloodshed.

The anti-Mormon faction, led by for-
faction elected twelve delegates, one from each of the seven judicial
delegation is seated.

a temporary chairman. The Dubois-
opposition put up K. I. Perky. The
vote gave McKinley 148 and Perky 132. It was claimed that the state committee had allowed contested dele-
and barred contestees that leaned toward the opposition. When the riotous demonstrations subsided Perky
to gather around him. He then led
organized his convention.

long as his name is before the convention. A resolution deploring the injec-
politics was adopted.
